(2A) A Board may suspend a licence if the licence holder is in default of payment of property tax, refuse collection fees or other fees and charges imposed by law, which are payable to the local authority and every such suspension shall remain in force until all the outstanding taxes, fees and charges have been duly paid or satisfactory arrangements have been made with the local Authority for such payment. 22 of 2008.

(3) The local authority with the approval of the Minister may make rules prescribing the procedure to be followed by the Board in hearing and determining any application for a licence or renewal of, or transfer of, a licence, or for the forfeiture or suspension of a licence. 19 of 1999.
22 of 2008.

6.—(1) Every person who desires to obtain a licence under this Act in respect of a business already existing at the date hereof shall, upon delivery to the clerk of the Board of the town wherein he is carrying on such trade, of an application in writing in the form set out in Schedule II signed by him and setting out Applications for licence.
Schedule II.

the nature of the trade for which he desires a licence, his name and address and such other particulars as may be relevant to this application, be granted a licence.

Schedule III

(2) Every person who wishes to commence a trade within the limits of any town shall, before he commences such a business, submit to the Board of the town wherein he proposes to set up his trade, an application in writing in the form set out in Schedule III signed by him setting out the nature of the trade he proposes to set up, his name and address, his place of birth and nationality and such other particulars as may be relevant to his application.

Schedule IV.

(3) Every person who changes his place of trade or ceases to carry it on in the old premises shall before he commences such business in the new premises render a return in the form set out in Schedule IV in respect of the new premises.

(4) If the new premises are of such annual value as to render such person liable to a higher rate of fees, he shall pay the amount payable in respect of the new premises, less the proportion of the fee already paid in respect of the old premises, calculated from the beginning of the quarter of a year in which the change takes place.

(5) Where any trade is carried on in more than one premises, a separate application shall be made in respect of each additional premises; except that where the premises are divided by walls but are otherwise communicating with one another and the trade carried on therein is carried on by one person or under one management, only one application need be made in respect of all the premises.

Schedule I.

(6) No licence is required under this Act to carry on any of the trades set out in Schedule I.

Register of applications.

7. The clerk shall enter the particulars specified in a register of applications to be maintained by him and shall, as early as is practicable, place the application on the agenda of the Board.

8. In deciding upon the application made to it, a Board may take into account the need for such a trade in that town, the need for control of trade within the town and such other matters as to the Board may seem fit or which may be set out in any regulations made by the Minister.

Criteria for licences.

9. No person or body of persons shall carry on any trade within the limits of any town without a licence granted by the Board for that town, except that the case of an existing business it shall be lawful to continue to carry on that business while an application for a licence is pending before the Board.

No person to carry on business without licence.

10.—(1) Any person who contravenes section 9, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment, and shall cease to carry on the business concerned. Such person shall further not be entitled either by himself or in association with others to a licence to trade for a period of two years from the date of his conviction.

Penalty for carrying on business without licence.
22 of 2008.

(2) The magistrate of the judicial district in which any person carries on any trade within any town without a licence from the Board for that town may, in addition to any fine imposed by him under sub-section (1), impose a fine of five dollars for every day upon which such person carries on such trade without a licence from the Board, and shall order that such person shall cease carrying on such trade forthwith.

(3) Where any person carrying on a trade within any town without a licence from the Board for that town is ordered to cease doing so by a magistrate, such persons, if he fails to do so forthwith, commits an offence and is on summary conviction liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the Board may issue a Stop Order to any person who carries on the trade or business in contravention of section 9, or whose licence has been forfeited or suspended by the Board in accordance with section 5, and every person who contravenes or fails to comply with such Stop Order commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

licence on premises.
22 of 2008.

10A. Every licence holder shall at all times prominently display his licence on some conspicuous part of the premises where the trade or business is carried out, and every person who fails to comply with this requirement commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction for a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Quarterly meetings of Board.

11. Every Board shall meet at least quarterly in the early half of the months of January, April, July and October of each year.

Special meetings of Board.

12.—(1) If any person pays a fee of one hundred and fifty dollars to the clerk of a Board and requests him in writing to summon a special licensing meeting, that clerk shall summon a special meeting of the Board for a day to be fixed by the Chairperson to suit, as far as is reasonably practicable, the convenience of the person.

(2) At any such special meeting a Board may transact any business which it may transact at its quarterly meetings, but any application for a licence made by any person, other than the person who paid for the summoning of the meeting, shall not be heard and determined unless such person has himself paid a fee of one hundred dollars in respect of his application and asked that it be heard at the special meeting.

Returns.
41 of 2005.
Schedule IV.

13.—(1) Every person who, on 1st November in any year, carries on a trade in respect of which a licence is required under this Act shall on or before 15th November of that year make an application for a renewal of his licence and submit a return in the form prescribed in Schedule IV.

(2) Upon receipt of an application for the renewal of a licence under sub-section (1), the Board shall grant a renewal of the licence but may re-assess the fee payable for such renewal in accordance with section 24.

(3) Notwithstanding sub-section (2), the Board may refuse to renew a licence where the applicant is in default of payment of property tax, refuse collection fees, or other fees and charges payable to the local Authority.

22 of 2008.

PART III

Penalties, Fees and Miscellaneous

14. Any person who makes any false statement in an application for a licence or in a prescribed return tendered in support of his application for renewal, with the intention of fraudulently obtaining a licence or of avoiding payment of all or any part of any licence fee commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to both such fine and term of imprisonment.

Penalty for false statement in returns.

15.—(1) Every Board shall annually assess each trade and levy a fee for every licence granted under this Act.

Fees payable to Board.

(2) The applications and returns shall be tendered, and the prescribed fees paid to the clerk of the Board of the town within which the trade is to be carried on.

16. Every person desirous of carrying on any trade or already carrying on a trade, who neglects or refuses to make an application for a licence or a prescribed return prior to the commencement or continuation respectively of any trade shall be assessed by the Board for the town in which such trade is or is sought to be carried on, to pay such fee as the Board may think fit upon the information available to it.

Assessment upon failure to make return.

Power to remedy errors in returns.

17. If a Board considers that any person, inadvertently, inaccurately completed any return rendered by him, the Board may remedy the error and assess the applicant accordingly.

Appeal against fee.
CAP. 91.

18.—(1) Whenever any Board has stipulated an assessed fee in respect of any application and the applicant is dissatisfied with the assessment, the applicant may, within ten days of notice of the assessment, serve a written notice of appeal therefrom upon that Board and upon the magistrate of the judicial district in which the applicant proposes to carry on the trade.

(2) If the applicant does not first pay the assessed fee within the stipulated time, his appeal shall be dismissed.

(3) The magistrate of the judicial district in which the appellant proposes to carry on the trade shall hear and determine an appeal made under this section, and his decision shall be deemed a judgment of an inferior court within the meaning of Part IX of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act.

Appeal against refusal of licence.

19.—(1) Any person whose application for a licence to a Board or for the Board's approval to the transfer of a licence is refused by the Board may appeal to the Minister against such a refusal.

(2) Upon an appeal being made under sub-section (1), the Minister shall hear the parties concerned and shall make a ruling thereon either confirming or reversing the decision of the Board.

Fee when due.

20. Where any fee is assessed by any Board in respect of any trade carried on within any town, such fee shall be payable within thirty days of the notice of assessment; and where the fee is not paid within this time, a further amount equivalent to ten per centum of the fee referred to in this section shall be payable in respect of every month or part of a month during which such fee remains unpaid.

Execution.
22 of 2008.
CAP. 97.

21.—(1) Where any person who is liable to pay any fee assessed by any Board fails to do so within thirty days of the notice of assessment, the magistrate of the judicial district in which the trade in respect of which the fee is due is situated shall, upon a certificate issued by that Board stating the sum due as fee and penalty, proceed to execution as if it were a judgment debt and shall for this purpose have all the powers available to him under the District Courts (Procedure) Act.

(2) Where the magistrate fails to proceed to execution within thirty days after the issue of the certificate by the Board, the Board may apply to the Supreme Court for an order requiring the magistrate to proceed to execution forthwith. 22 of 2008.

22. The Chief Magistrate may, with the approval of the Attorney General, from time to time make general rules regulating the hearing of appeals under section 18, or execution under section 21, and prescribing the scale of fees and costs in respect thereof. Magistrate may make rules. 19 of 1999.

23. All rules made by the Chief Magistrate under section 22, shall be subject to the approval of the Attorney General, who shall have power to revoke, alter or amend them. Rules to be approved by the Minister. 19 of 1999.

24. The annual licence fee payable in respect of the carrying on of any trade shall be an amount equal to one-fourth of the annual value of the premises in which the business is carried on. Annual licence fee for trade.

25.—(1) No person carrying on a trade under a licence granted under this Act may transfer the licence for such trade except with the prior approval in writing of the Board and upon payment of a fee of fifty dollars to the Board. Transfer of licences. 41 of 2005.

(2) The approval of the transfer of a licence referred to in sub-section (1), shall be made at a meeting of the Board, at which the person to whom the transfer is to be made, and the person intending to make the transfer, shall be present. 41 of 2005.

(3) The Board shall request the persons referred to in sub-section (2), to answer any questions and queries as may be put to them by the Board regarding the transfer of the licence. 41 of 2005.

Peddler's
Licence.

26.—(1) Every person who—

- (a) in any street or public place in any town sells or exposes for sale imported goods; or
- (b) in any town acts as a peddler or hawker of imported goods, shall obtain from the Board for that town a licence which, according to the nature of the goods to be sold, shall be in one of the following forms, that is to say—
 - (i) a special peddler's licence authorising the holder, personally, to sell imported jewellery and all other imported goods, the prescribed fee in respect of which shall be paid in advance; or
 - (ii) a general peddler's licence authorising the holder, personally, to sell imported goods other than jewelry, the prescribed fee in respect of which shall be paid in advance.

(2) Such licence shall be taken out in the name of one individual only who shall have the exclusive right to act thereunder.

(3) Such licence shall in the case of an applicant who produces a certificate of residence issued under section 29, be in force for one year from the day whereon the licence is granted and in all other cases shall be in force for such period not exceeding seven days as the Board shall state therein.

(4) Every peddler, hawker or other person who has obtained a licence under this section shall at all times on demand produce and show such licence to any justice of the peace, police officer, person to whom such peddler, hawker or other person offers his goods for sale, or officer of the Board.

(5) Every peddler, hawker, or other person who refuses on demand to show his licence to, and allow it to be read and a copy thereof taken by any of the persons authorised under sub-section (4), to demand it, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five dollars for each offence.

(6) Every person who sells or exposes for sale, or acts as a peddler or hawker of imported jewellery or other imported goods without the licence required by this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(7) The fine and the amount of the fee payable under this section shall be recoverable on information in the manner provided for in this Act.

27.—(1) Every person who carries on any of the following businesses shall take out a licence for so doing and pay the prescribed fee in respect thereof—

- (b) the business of an acrobat or circus performer;
- (c) the business of an itinerant vendor of secret or patent medicines;
- (d) the business of a moving picture-show.
- (e) any business not otherwise provided for in this Act in the course of which any services are sold, including any business in which services of any sort are exported from Belize.

(2) Every such licence shall be in force up to and including 31st December following the day whereon it was granted, but if any such licence is granted after 1st December in any year, such licence shall be in force for one calendar month from the day whereon it was granted.

(3) Every person who carries on any such business without first obtaining from the Board the licence in respect thereof commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction for each offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Commercial traveller.

28.—(1) Every person who carries on the business of a commercial traveller in any town shall obtain a licence from the Board of that town for doing so and pay the prescribed fee.

(2) A licence issued pursuant to sub-section (1), shall, in the case of an applicant who produces a certificate of residence issued under section 29, be in force for one year from the day whereon the licence is granted and in all other cases shall be in force for such period not exceeding seven days as the Board shall state therein.

(3) Every person who carries on such business without first obtaining from a Board the licence in respect thereof, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Certificate of residence.

29.—(1) Any person who is resident in Belize and who intends to apply for a licence as a general peddler, special peddler or commercial traveller may apply to the Minister for a certificate of residence.

Schedule IV.

(2) The Minister may, if satisfied that such person is resident in Belize, issue to him free of charge a certificate of residence in the form set out in Schedule IV which shall be valid for a period of five years but which may be renewed.

Fees payable.
Schedule VI.

30. The amounts of the prescribed fees payable under this Act in relation to the carrying on in any town of the several trades mentioned in sections 26, 27 and 28, are those set out in Schedule VI.

31.—(1) Every person who, in any town, carries or intends to carry on any of the vocations set out in Schedule VII shall obtain a licence from the Board of that town.

Professional
licence.
Schedule VII.

(2) Upon receipt of an application for a licence or a renewal of a licence in respect of any vocation set out in Schedule VII the Board shall, subject to any assessment that the Board may make under section 24, grant a licence therefor upon payment of the assessed fee.

Schedule VII.

(3) Section 5 (1) (c) and (2), shall not apply to any vocation set out in Schedule VII.

Schedule VII.

(4) The Minister may by Order published in the Gazette add any new vocation to Schedule VII or delete any vocation therefrom.

Schedule VII.

32.—(1) The Minister may by Order published in the Gazette—

Orders.
Schedule I.

- (a) substitute another amount as the prescribed fee or another formula of computation of the fee;
- (b) add to Schedule I any new trade that may be carried on without a licence;
- (c) delete from Schedule I any trade that was exempted from having to obtain a licence.

(2) Every such Order shall be subject to negative resolution.

33. All fees paid in respect of licences granted under this Act and all penalties imposed in respect of the non-payment or late payment of such fees shall be placed to the credit of the funds of the local Authority of the licensing district in which they are recovered.

Fees to be credited to local Authority.

34. The Minister may make regulations for—
